This system contains the first seven staves of a musical score. The instruments are Holz (Woodwinds), Flh.B (Flute in B-flat), Trp.B (Trumpet in B-flat), Ten.B (Tenor in B-flat), Horn.Es (Horn in E-flat), Bass C (Bassoon in C), and Schlz. (Snare Drum). The woodwinds and brass parts consist of chords and melodic lines. The percussion part features a steady snare drum pattern.

This system contains the next seven staves of the musical score. It includes a rit. (ritardando) marking above the Holz staff. The woodwinds and brass parts feature long notes with fermatas. The percussion part continues with its snare drum pattern. The system concludes with a double bar line and repeat signs on the right side of each staff.
